Why is the required center code not listed among the options when listing a resource?
The correct center code is coordinated with the KPN manager. Only the center codes for which the manager is actually responsible within KPN will be displayed. If the center code is not listed in the options, we advise you to contact the KPN manager again.